The Mount Ascutney Region has many outdoor recreation opportunities for both residents and visitors. There is much conserved and publicly accessible land for hiking, biking, hunting, fishing, boating, and snow travel (among other activities).

Many hiking and biking trails summit the region's mountains and a sizeable network of snowmobile trails crisscrosses the region. The VTXL, a popular distance gravel cycling route, crosses through seven of the region's ten towns. Together, these resources attract tens of thousands of visitors to the region annually.

NOTE: This is not a comprehensive mapping of the region's trails, outdoor resources, or the many ways the landscape can be enjoyed. Many trails are not mapped for ready digital access (some by intention), and not all databases are complete or up to date.
